Welcome Back Home!

Camp of Champs proudly returns to Presbyterian College, where it all began. Founded in 1990, the camp called PC home for the first 27 years and stands today as the longest-running and largest team camp of its kind~40 years!

This year's camp brings together two Blue Hose legends—former Head Basketball Coach Gregg Nibert and current Head Basketball Coach Quinton Ferrell—working side by side to deliver an outstanding week of team camp.

Coach Nibert led Presbyterian College basketball for 28 seasons and remains the winningest coach in PC history, with more than 400 career victories. His impact on the program is unmatched.

Coach Ferrell played under Coach Nibert and was known as one of the team's top defenders. Following graduation, he served as an assistant coach for five seasons with the Blue Hose. Named Head Coach in 2019, Coach Ferrell has just completed his seventh season, continuing the tradition of excellence through strong leadership and exceptional recruiting.

Together, their experience, legacy, and passion for the game make Camp of Champs a truly special experience—one that celebrates the past while building the future.

"The Camp of Champs was a great growing experience for our entire basketball program. Each of our teams were able to spend time together off the court while getting great competition on the court. No one in the Southeast does it better than Coach Nibert and his staff."
